

NAOS Emerging Opportunities Company (NCC)

NAOS

MONTHLY INVESTMENT REPORT AND NTA UPDATE

April 2017

KEY CHARACTERISTICS

1. Genuine Exposure to Undervalued Emerging Companies

Regardless of market capitalisation and/or liquidity, NCC seeks to provide investors with exposure to high quality, undervalued emerging companies in a transparent and concentrated structure that has the competitive advantage of being a nimble closed ended fund with no liquidity constraints.

2. Focus on Quality of Companies Not Quantity or Size of Companies

Our primary focus is on developing a deep understanding and appreciation of the companies in our portfolio. We believe the best way to achieve this is to focus on a select number (target 0-15) of high quality investment ideas. By developing a deep understanding of these companies we believe we are well positioned to capitalise on our 'long term information advantage' & 'liquidity advantage'.

3. Focus on Meaningful Long Term Performance

We target an Internal Hurdle Rate of 20% p.a. over a rolling three-year period for all our investment holdings.

4. Portfolio Constructed Utilising a Benchmark Unaware Approach

Being benchmark unaware means we are not forced holders of stocks with large benchmark weightings that we are not convinced are attractive investment propositions.

5. Significant Alignment of Interests with Shareholders

NAOS & NCC employees/directors own >10 million NCC shares, providing shareholders with a significant alignment of interests.

Investment Portfolio Performance & Market Insight

The NCC Investment Portfolio produced a negative return of -3.69% compared to the Benchmark Small Ordinaries Accumulation Index which fell by -0.25%. This brings the performance since inception of 4 years and 2 months to +104.72% vs. the Benchmark which has returned +15.69%. Whilst the performance for April was disappointing it is important to highlight the fact that there were no stock specific events that led to the share price reductions experienced in a small number of our key positions.

Although none of the following will be expanded on within this month's report it is worth highlighting some major announcements and events within the portfolio which have occurred in the first week or two of May. Firstly, Big River (ASX: BRI), our first new core position over the last 12-18 months, listed successfully on 2 May. Consolidated Operating Group (ASX: COG) announced the acquisition of a large finance broker which will be funded through a 1 for 4 rights issue. Wingara (ASX: WNR) announced the acquisition of a large piece of land in Horsham, Victoria, which will form the base for their new hay exporting facility with a capacity for 200,000 tonnes per annum, increasing their current capacity five-fold. Biotech Capital (ASX: BTC), one of our lesser known holdings announced it has secured a licencing deal to distribute a medical device which assists in the treatment of chronic wounds within the Asia Pacific region. Finally, although not stock specific, the Forbes 500 business Accenture acquired unlisted creative advertising agency The Monkeys, which is a direct comparable to Enero's (ASX: EGG) Australian agency BMF. This further highlights the consolidation taking place in the agency industry, driven by the likes of global giants Deloitte, Accenture and KPMG.

Finally it is worth referring to the recently completed placement and Share Purchase Plan (SPP) that just opened to all shareholders. Many of our investors will be aware that the NCC portfolio has been fully invested for approximately 2 years. All but one of our core positions have remained constant over this period of time and the Investment Team continues to have a high level of conviction in the current portfolio. Due to the recent volatility within small caps a number of opportunities have arisen, and this capital raising will give the investment team the flexibility required to potentially capitalise on these opportunities without needing to sell out of existing positions that we believe represent good risk adjusted value over the longer term. It is also worth highlighting that the Directors of NCC, and staff members of the Investment Manager are significant shareholders of NCC, and we remain steadfastly committed to maintaining a high conviction portfolio of 0-15 stocks with a pure long term exposure to industrial focused small/micro-cap companies regardless of size or liquidity. Over the long term we believe that this investment strategy will provide our fellow shareholders with the greatest potential for significant, sustainable, outperformance. With this in mind we remain committed to the soft close target of ~$125 million and due to this, this current capital raising may very well be the last.

A Description of Statistical Terms/Glossary

Portfolio Average Market Capitalisation – The portfolio weight of each individual position multiplied by each company’s respective market capitalisation.

Standard Deviation of Returns – A historical analysis of the volatility in monthly returns also known as historical volatility.

Correlation of Returns – A statistical measure of how two variables move in relation to each other. In this case the two variables are NCC and XSOAI. If the correlation is 1 then the two securities should have the same monthly returns and if the correlation is -1 and XSOAI had a return of -1.00% then NCC would be expected to have a return of +1.00%

Sortino Ratio – A modification of the Sharpe ratio that differentiates harmful volatility from general volatility by taking into account the standard deviation of negative asset returns, called downside deviation. A large Sortino Ratio may potentially indicate that there is a low probability of a large capital loss. Returns less than that of the benchmark (Small Ordinaries Accumulation Index - XSOAI) are classified as negative asset returns.

Downside Deviation - A measure of downside risk that focuses on returns that fall below a minimum threshold or minimum acceptable return (MAR). For our calculations, we use returns negative to zero for the calculation of portfolio downside deviation.

Portfolio Beta – A measure of the volatility, or systematic risk of a portfolio or security. A beta of 1 indicates a portfolio/security’s price will move with the market. A beta of less than 1 indicated that a security/portfolio should be less volatile than the market.

XSOAI – Small Ordinaries Accumulation Index
